

National Network of Partnership Schools at Johns Hopkins University

Joyce L. Epstein, Ph.D., Director
Steven B. Sheldon, Ph.D., Associate Director

Educators and families agree that school, family, and community partnerships are essential for children's success in school.

Based on more than three decades of research and the work of many educators, parents, students, and others, we know that it is possible for all elementary, middle, and high schools to develop and sustain strong programs of partnerships that help students succeed.

Districts, states, and organizations can establish policies and take leadership to help all schools develop excellent programs of partnerships.

As a member of the National Network of Partnership Schools (NNPS), you will be guided, supported, and recognized in your efforts to improve and maintain goal-oriented school, family, and community connections.

What is the National Network of Partnership Schools?

Established at Johns Hopkins University in 1996, the National Network of Partnership Schools (NNPS) assists schools, districts, states, and organizations that are committed to developing strong programs of school, family, and community partnerships. Each Partnership School strengthens its program with an Action Team for Partnerships, the framework of six types of involvement to engage parents in different ways, and a written action plan for goal-oriented family and community involvement linked to the school improvement plan. Partnership Districts, States, and Organizations assist schools to develop, evaluate, and continually improve their programs of family and community engagement for student success in school.

Why Become a Member of NNPS?

- ★ Comprehensive handbook to guide partnership program development
- ★ Monthly e-brief communications from NNPS
- ★ On-call technical assistance from NNPS Facilitators
- ★ Type 2 Blog
- ★ Annual collection, Promising Partnership Practices
- ★ Posters of six "keys" to successful partnerships in English and Spanish
- ★ NNPS Partnership Awards Program
- ★ NNPS website and webinars
- ★ Certificate of membership

Members benefit from the experience of the NNPS staff and by sharing ideas with other schools, districts, organizations, and states working to increase and improve partnerships. Communications share creative solutions for improving family and community involvement.

Who May Join the NNPS?

Membership is open to all schools, districts, states, and organizations that agree to the requirements listed on the following page.

NATIONAL NETWORK OF Partnership Schools
JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

Membership Requirements

Developing good connections of home, school, and community is an on-going process that takes time, organization, and effort.

NNPS offers a research-based framework, tools, and strategies that enable all schools, districts, and states to organize school, family, and community partnerships to improve schools, strengthen families, and increase student success.

Organization and university partners are welcome to join NNPS to assist schools and districts in their projects and regions.

Members work with NNPS to improve connections with students, families, and communities. Schools, districts, and states must meet a few goals and requirements.

At the SCHOOL LEVEL, each Partnership School

- ✓ Create an Action Team for Partnerships.
- ✓ Use the framework of six types of involvement to plan and implement a goal-oriented program of family and community engagement linked to school improvement plans.
- ✓ Allocate an annual budget for activities in the team's One-Year Action Plan for Partnerships.
- ✓ Allocate time for an initial One-Day Team-Training Workshop and at least one hour per month for the Action Team for Partnerships to meet to plan and evaluate activities.

At the DISTRICT LEVEL, each Partnership District will:

- ✓ Assign the equivalent of one full-time facilitator to assist 20 to 30 schools to create their Action Teams for Partnerships. Part-time coordinators may work in districts with fewer than 20 schools.
- ✓ Allocate an annual budget for the district facilitator's salary and activities to strengthen partnership programs.
- ✓ Assist each participating school to fulfill the requirements listed above for the school level.

At the STATE LEVEL, each Partnership State will:

- ✓ Identify a leader for school, family, and community partnerships.
- ✓ Support the leader and adequate staff to conduct leadership activities and outreach to districts and schools to improve goal-linked programs of family and community engagement.
- ✓ Allocate an annual budget for the work of this office.

Organizations use the NNPS Organization Membership Form.

ALL MEMBERS will:

- ✓ Complete an annual UPDATE survey to evaluate and report progress and to renew membership in NNPS.

To join NNPS, there is a $500 processing fee for schools, districts, states, and organizations. Annual renewal fees of $250 are sent with an end-of-school year UPDATE SURVEY to evaluate progress.

If your school, district, state, or organization is ready to develop strong programs of school, family, and community partnerships for student success, you are invited to join the National Network of Partnership Schools (NNPS).

For more information and membership forms visit www.partnershipschools.org and click Join NNPS.

Or contact NNPS, Johns Hopkins University, 2800 N. Charles Street, Suite 420, Baltimore, MD 21218
E-mail: nnps@jhu.edu Tel: 410-516-2318 Fax: 410-516-5572

Visit NNPS at www.partnershipschools.org

NNPS MODEL
For Schools, Districts,
States, & Organizations

Learn the components of research-based programs of school, family, and community partnerships in schools, districts, states, and organizations. See the School Model for the framework of six types of involvement, Action Team for Partnerships, and other features of successful programs of family and community involvement.

Success Stories

Explore over 1500 activities from annual collections of Promising Partnership Practices submitted by school, district, state, and organization members of NNPS. Also, meet the winners of NNPS Partnership Awards and read about their excellent programs.

Research & Evaluation

Read summaries of new research and past studies on the nature and effects of family and community involvement. See a list of over 60 publications by Center researchers that provide the research base for NNPS's tools and guidelines for partnership program development.

Professional Development

Plan to attend an NNPS Leadership institute for district, organization, and state leaders and free webinars for schools' Action Teams for Partnerships and for program leaders. See Workshops on the Road to arrange on-site professional development to strengthen leadership and improve schools' goal-linked partnership programs for student success in school.

Publications & Products

Order NNPS books, tools, surveys, and other resources to strengthen knowledge, skills, and programs of family and community involvement. Read the NNPS blog and archived editions of the NNPS newsletter, Type 2. Shop for NNPS incentives (posters, mugs, T-shirts, pens) to motivate teams and colleagues.

TIPS Teachers Involve
Parents in Schoolwork

Learn how TIPS Interactive Homework in math, science, and language arts promotes connections of school and home for student success. Download examples of TIPS activities and see resources available for the elementary and middle grades.

Also, learn how to organize volunteers in the middle grades with TIPS Social Studies and Art Volunteers.

JOIN NNPS

Download a membership form for your school, district, state, or organization. Join others across the country who are using the NNPS Framework and research-based approaches to improve policies, programs, and practices of family and community involvement for student success in school.

Member Benefits and Services

- One copy of School, Family, and Community Partnerships: Your Handbook for Action, Third Edition which includes research summaries, tools, and guidelines for developing effective partnership programs. The book includes a CD with the NNPS PowerPoint for conducting workshops for Action Teams for Partnerships (ATPs), with materials and activities in English and Spanish.
- Certificate of membership.
- Website with program guidelines, research results, best practices from NNPS members.
- Type 2 Blog -- a periodic communication on new research, best practices, and other guidelines for continuous progress on partnerships.
- Annual collection of Promising Partnership Practices, with good ideas for improving goal-oriented activities of family and community involvement.
- Monthly e-briefs from NNPS Facilitators.
- Technical assistance “on call” by phone and e-mail from NNPS Facilitators.
- Professional development institutes in Baltimore. Discounts on registration for NNPS members.
- Free webinars during the year on strategies for program development.
- Posters of the six types of involvement in English and Spanish.
- Annual UPDATE survey to evaluate progress and assess challenges. At the end of each school year, UPDATE is returned to NNPS with a $250 renewal fee for data processing and to continue membership and benefits for the next school year.
- Annual summaries of UPDATE data from schools and districts in NNPS; and customized summaries of UPDATE data for districts with 8 schools or more in NNPS.
- Networking opportunities to learn about effective partnership practices from other schools, districts, states, and organizations.
- Tools and training linked to Title I requirements for parental involvement.
- New research results, reports, tools, and materials as they are developed.
- NNPS “Reward and Recognition” items for ATP members and others who support school, family, and community partnerships.
- Contract services for on-site basic training, advanced workshops, and conference events.

For more information:

National Network of Partnership Schools
Johns Hopkins University
2800 N. Charles Street, Suite 420
Baltimore, MD 21218

410-516-2318
nnps@jhu.edu

www.partnershipschools.org